Janine Metcalf absolutely loves Jesus and pastoring people. Janine was the Lead Pastor of Richland Church of the Nazarene for 5 years, but had to step down due to family health needs. Before moving to the Northwest, she pastored in El Cajon, CA for 12 years, taught at Point Loma Nazarene University for 6 years, preached throughout the U. S. as a Commissioned Evangelist and served as a staff pastor at Pasadena First Church of the Nazarene. And before all this, Janine was a broadcast journalist. She became a Born Again Christian while covering the Iranian hostage crisis for NBC news. She and Ed have been married for almost 25 years. They have two married sons, Curt and Kevin, and four amazing grandchildren who live in Northern CA.
