

THE APPROVAL PROCESS FOR LICENSING & ORDINATION

Effective January 1, 2021

A. STEP ONE – Applying for a Local Minister’s License:

1. TO BEGIN the credentialing process, the local church board and senior pastor must recommend and grant you a local minister’s license for a minimum of one year, with the following conditions:
  - a. Complete a Local Minister’s License Application packet and be approved by the Local Church Board; submitted to the District Office. Application and Guidelines available at www.sacnaz.org
  - b. Consent to an official background check prior to approval for a first district license. The District Office will be able to assist all local license candidates in completing this procedure.
  - c. If you personally have experienced a divorce, you must complete the appropriate forms prior to application for a district minister’s license. Please notify the District Superintendent for instructions and forms regarding this requirement.
2. WHEN YOU RECEIVE your first local license, you must begin an approved course of study. However, you may begin to complete classes within the course of study prior to being locally licensed. To enter the course of study please contact the Sacramento District Institute of Ministry Director.
3. IF POSSIBLE, please complete the following classes in the first two years of the course of study:
  - a. Nazarene Church History & Polity, and
  - b. Exploring Christian Holiness or Doctrine of Holiness

* The above two classes must be completed at either a Nazarene University, through the Sacramento District Institute of Ministry (SDIM), or through the following online institutions (NBC or NNU).

B. STEP TWO – Applying for a District License:

1. ALL LOCAL LICENSED AND DISTRICT LICENSED students will receive a District License Application Packet by mid-December of each year. All documents are returned to the District Office unless otherwise noted.
